Course Description:

2 Day Pistol/Carbine Class

The XA Carbine/Pistol is a 2-day course that provides the shooter with a deeper understanding of fundamentals at speed. This is an adaptive course utilizing an inductive learning strategy that transitions principals of practical and tactical pistol over to performance carbine shooting. Using inductive teaching strategies, this course aims to develop shooting fundamentals and provide students with a solid foundation for real-world performance shooting and training. Students will shoot a series of drills and exercises with the primary focus being foundational skill development to facilitate execution of shooting fundamentals at speed with maximum accountability, control, and performance. At the end of training, students will have a better understanding of how to train properly and utilize proven practical training principles to increase the performance and consistency of their hard skills.

This is a high-volume, dynamic, and physically demanding shooting course. This course is not designed to be a basic-level training course. Officers are expected to have a good understanding of safety and principles of shooting and training in a dynamic environment.

This course is offered only to Sworn LEOs with departmental approval.
