Course Description:

Off-Duty Pistol/Covert Carry Pistol

This is a performance-based course utilizing the officers off-duty or covert carry pistol, with very aggressive drills, and using hit factor for scoring (points/time=HF). The desired goal is to show how effective micro and traditional compact guns like the G43x and G19 are compared to a full-size duty handgun. This will enhance your safety through overdeveloped skills with handguns that are not normally trained as aggressively as duty guns.

Equipment requirements-

Off-duty handgun and concealment holster/mag pouch

Minimum of four ea. 10+ capacity magazines

Eye protection (tinted and clear)

Hearing protection (electronic)

Training and weather-appropriate attire

750rds of ammunition

Maintenance tools and associated equipment

Hydration and snacks

Mike Pannone is a former operational member of U.S. Marine Reconnaissance, Army Special Forces (Green Beret) and 1st SFOD-D (Delta Force) as well as a competition USPSA pistol shooter holding a Master class ranking in Limited, Limited-10 and Production divisions. He has participated in stabilization, combat and high-risk protection operations in support of U.S. policies throughout the world as both an active duty military member, and a civilian contractor.

Specifically, in conduct of his duties as both a Special Operations soldier and a high-risk contractor, he has carried a handgun, trained others in the use of a handgun, and carried one as part of force protection and or combat operations.
