Course Description:

Patrol Rifle/Patrol Shotgun Instructor Course (40-Hour 5-Day Course)

Due to high demand, another class is offered on June 2-6, 2025, if this one is full.

This course exceeds Texas Commission on Law Enforcement (TCOLE) requirements Patrol Rifle Instructor Course #3323 and gives an additional certification for Shotgun Instructor. (not a TCOLE required course however furthers the instructor in the skillset and lessens liability)

Responsibly training patrol officers on how to deploy rifles/shotguns is of the utmost importance to ensure they can do so while maintaining safety and accountability. This 40-hour course is designed to prepare instructors to efficiently teach patrol rifle/shotgun classes to patrol officers and recruits. This course will focus on instructor development and you will learn the techniques and skills necessary to conduct realistic training and qualifications that meet and exceed TCOLE standards for patrol rifle. This course is packed with hard learned instructor insights, tips, tricks and ways to make any of your instruction more efficient.

Topics covered:

- Utilization and benefits of a patrol rifle/shotgun
- Policy development and course implementation, liability avoidance
- Department equipment selection/approval
- Proficiency testing, day/low light standards
- Fundamentals of Marksmanship
- Weapon manipulation
- Zero distances, course and qualification design
- Common shooter issues, positive reinforcement techniques
- TCOLE qualification standards and requirements
- Common malfunctions/issues
- Selection of appropriate ammunition
- Shotgun patterning
- Less lethal/breaching considerations

Focus will be on the fundamental skills needed to consistently and efficiently instruct students on the patrol rifle/shotgun. We have packed this course with instructor information to help make you a better instructor. You will leave the course with a greater understanding and more advanced instructor skill level.
