Course Description:

Night Vision / Laser & RDS Environments Course (3 days)

Too often the lack of familiarization and limited use of NV equipment by Law Enforcement leads to confusion and to potential poor mission execution. With correct instruction, repetition and reinforcement of the basics, students will build the knowledge and correct repetitions to be effective with NV, laser and RDS under NODS use and deployment. This course is a task based dark environment course. The students will learn the use of NV and lasers through multiple tasks that will require all to be done in darkness using only NV devices. The CQB portion will be footwork and movement in structures and will culminate in MMR / SIMS type munitions. On day 3 the lessons learned will be validated on a live range with visible laser and NV under IR laser drills on an indoor range in darkness. There will also be RDS handgun drills to expose students to the benefits of handgun RDS in low and no light environments. Everything we do in this class outside of the initial classroom portion will be done in low / no light to enforce and enhance learning by successful repetition. The team assigned tasks will be completed and graded on time and correct execution. Vendors from several NV and laser equipment companies will give briefs on equipment and capabilities on each training day and will be available for Q&A during breaks.

Matt Jacques – Biography

Victory First

Matt is a retired Police Detective, SWAT Team member and former Marine Corps veteran. Matt spent part of his military enlistment within HMX-1, The Presidential Helicopter Squadron, and he served within the Military Police MOS (Military Occupational Specialty) and after his military service, continued in civilian Law Enforcement.

Matt served with two Virginia Law Enforcement agencies and filled several billets. During his tenure, he served assignments as a Basic Academy Recruit Instructor, Field Training Officer, Detective within the Special Problems Unit as an undercover Detective as well as a founding Special Deputy of the U. S. Marshal Capital Area Fugitive Task Force for the Washington D.C. U S Marshal's Office. Matt served several years on a large Northern Virginia Police Department SWAT team as an entry team member and later was selected and served as a Sniper team member until his retirement due to injuries sustained during a line of duty incident.

After his retirement, Matt was hired as the Senior Manager of Assault Weapons for FNH USA. He was involved in the FN SPR Precision Rifle program; FN Belt fed Weapons section and the SOCOM SCAR program. Matt was tasked with the user evaluations and New Equipment Training (NET) for SOCOM and the SCAR family of weapons.

Matt left FNH USA and returned to training Law Enforcement as a Firearms Instructor for The US Department of State Firearms Training Unit within the Bureau of Diplomatic Security. Matt was tasked with firearms training of Federal Agents for Diplomatic Security both stateside and worldwide. The training consisted of proficiency in 18 weapons platforms and tactics to perform in both overt and covert operations in austere and hostile environments worldwide such as Iraq, Afghanistan, Pakistan and conflicted countries in Africa. Matt was promoted to the Chief of Operations of the Firearms Training Unit in 2011. While supervising 32 Instructors, Matt continued to train the operational tactical teams, snipers and High Threat components of the State Department Firearms programs. In 2013, Matt resigned to make Victory First a full time consulting and training company, and is currently an Industry consultant for several Firearms Industry companies.

With his deep and diverse Law Enforcement and firearms background, he is a sought-after resource for Concealed / undercover training, Carbine and DM/DDM courses. Matt also serves as a consultant / advisor for product development within both Law Enforcement and the firearms Industry.
