Training Name: Specialty

Course Name: PRACTICAL MOBILE SURVEILLANCE

Dates: 04/30/2025 - 05/02/2025

Venue: Garland Police Department
Garland, TX 75042

Price: $825

Instructors: Trey Lindsey

Course Description:
Description: This 24 Hour/3-Day course will focus on surveillance principles, designed as an introduction for those who haven't been formally trained, as well as mission enhancing for law enforcement officers who routinely use surveillance as one of their investigative techniques. This course will cover a wide range of techniques, including the application of technical surveillance. One of the major investigative tools used to combat crime and criminal organizations is surveillance. The age-old surveillance fundamentals, coupled with today's technology, give law enforcement officers the potential to locate criminals and dismantle criminal organizations. Upon completion of this course, officers will be able to successfully integrate mobile, foot, and multi-mode surveillance into their operational duties, enhancing overall mission capabilities.

This course will include a classroom block of instruction covering multiple types of surveillance, surveillance techniques, voice procedures, demeanor, and operational planning. This course will also include practical application, where officers will apply their classroom knowledge in the field. Each day, officers will be given a scenario in which they will perform mobile, foot, and multi-mode surveillance. The practical exercises will provide officers with an experience that mimics some of the complex criminal organizations and other crimes in which surveillance is needed. These scenarios challenge the officer to remain covert while attempting to follow the suspects while working in a dynamic high threat environment.

TRAINING OBJECTIVES COVERED

- Surveillance Principles and Application
- Static, Picket, Mobile, Foot and Multi-mode surveillance techniques

- Static and Picket Surveillance methods and procedures
- Surveillance Voice Procedures and Communication
- Application of Technical Surveillance
- Physical Demeaner
- Surveillance report and logging
- Operational Surveillance Planning
- First line gear for domestic LEO surveillance operations

GEAR LIST

- Civilian clothing
- Undercover appropriate firearm and magazine
- Any domestic LEO appropriate surveillance equipment
- Duty vehicle
- Inter-team communication radios with appropriate push to talk and earbud systems

INSTRUCTOR BIO

Trey Lindsey is the founder and CEO of Gallowglass Guardian Group; a tactical, security, and defense consulting company based out of Dallas, Texas. Trey served in the United States Navy for over 20 years, 18 of which were spent as a Navy SEAL including 13 years as a member of the Navy's Tier 1 Special Mission Unit, SEAL Team 6. Throughout his time at SEAL Team 6, Trey held a variety of senior enlisted leadership positions. He also served as a Naval Security Forces Police Officer with a specialty is physical security and anti-terrorism. A seasoned combat veteran, Trey participated in more than a dozen operational deployments oversees during his career.

Leveraging his extensive military experience, he has dedicated his post-military career through his company Gallowglass Guardian Group, to enhancing training proficiencies for law enforcement, military and civilians through security and defense consulting, tactical training courses, leadership and team building as well as communications and public speaking. He holds a bachelor's degree from American Military University in Entrepreneurship. Trey also holds a state of Louisiana POST certification in Richland Parish and is an adjunct instructor and staff member for the NTOA.

Jacquelyn Reed served 21 years in the Military, 15 of which have been in Navy Special Operations as an Explosive Ordnance Disposal (EOD) Technician, directly attached to Navy SEAL Teams deploying to various global theaters. She was screened and selected to operate and deploy with Special Mission Units, where she broke glass ceilings by becoming the first female Operations Leader for Sensitive Activities. As a surveillance team leader, she was responsible for directing and managing multiple diverse 20-person teams overseas, executing national-level priorities in countering strategic adversaries. Jacquelyn finished out a venerable 21-year career, earning titles such as executive coach and mentor, and worked as a Women in Special Operations Forces Instructor (WISOF, a pioneering role), assigned to the Basic Underwater Demolition/SEAL (BUD/S) schoolhouse in Coronado, CA. Her direct influence provided the Naval Special Warfare Enterprise with clear guidelines to cultivate an environment of diversity and inclusion for all. After retiring from the Military, she felt inspired to share her knowledge, experience, and passions with other women. Now owner and operator of her company, Athena Defense Group, her goal is to teach, inspire, and train women invaluable techniques. She hopes to encourage personal growth and confidence through self-defense classes, helping others unlock their true potential and live empowered lives.

This is an LE or MIL only class

Credit card payment is strongly recommended. Inquiries regarding the course, payment or other questions can be directed to brandon.hernandez@ttpoa.org Last day to cancel and get your money back will be 4-17-25. If paying by check, make checks payable to: TTPOA and send them to PO Box 304, Burnet, Texas 78611, with a note Region 7

Training Description:

TTPOA believes in bringing in some of the best instructors in the country to share their knowledge and experience. If you have requests for a specific instructor or course, contact your Regional Director.