Course Overview

The Tactical Arrest and Control Procedures (TACP) Course is specialized training derived from the Special Operations Combatives Program. This hands-on, physically intensive course is designed specifically for SWAT operations, equipping officers with tactical skills essential for real-world applications.

TACP will compliment any departments Defensive Tactics. The real-world techniques, tactics, and procedures are easily digested, easy to teach and employ. This program is derived from techniques from SOCP and SOS-D with heavy emphasis on less than lethal options. This course allows for a 2-hour Training module to be plugged into any existing program. This gives the organizations the ability to customize and evolve their Defensive Tactics gradually. This program helps agencies develop realistic/safe scenarios and drills to allow students to evolve their decision-making under stress.
